

Learn Italian in Italy

We are pleased to offer you a place on our next experience abroad. This time, we are going to Venice, from 24th to 26th May 2019. Don't worry about your knowledge of Italian (or lack of it), as we cater for all abilities.

Cost:

The prices are per person for the three days (minimum numbers apply). Places are limited, so make sure you secure your place by the published deadline to avoid disappointment.

£450: if you are leaving with us from UK and includes flights

£350: if you are meeting us in Italy and does not include flights and airport transfers

£50: single supplement (surcharge for booking a single room)

What's included:

-flights (if you are leaving with us from UK)

-hotel

-breakfast

-transport in Venice

-sight entrances

What's unique to the Passione Italiana tours:

-two native Italian Tour Leaders will look after you and make sure you are fully immersed in the language and the local culture. Did we mention they are also qualified Italian teachers? Throughout the trip they will support you by providing opportunities to practise your language and answer any niggling doubts you may have.

-fun language activities and games handed out in key locations around the city. You will enjoy completing these both if you are an absolute beginner or a fluent speaker, as they will give you information about the city, but also increase your Italian vocabulary.

-informative handouts specifically designed for the trip, pitched at the appropriate language level.

-city map

-Italian lesson for all abilities. You will also enjoy a 2-hr lesson like no other. This will give you an opportunity to learn a bit more about the city and also improve your Italian.

What's not included:

-Travel insurance. You can get a free EHIC Card here: Apply for a free EHIC card - Healthcare abroad - NHS Choices

-Airport transfers in UK

Subject to change, we are planning to visit:

Piazza e Basilica di San Marco This is the principal public square of Venice and the only one called "piazza". All other spaces in town are called "campi". The Basilica is one of the best-known examples of Italo-Byzantine architecture.
Palazzo Ducale The palace was the residence of the Doge of Venice, the supreme authority of the former Venetian Republic.

Ponte di Rialto The oldest of the four bridges spanning the Grand Canal and is now a significant tourist attraction in the city.
Ponte dei Sospiri Made of white limestone, it has windows with stone bars, passes over the Rio di Palazzo, and connects the New Prison (Prigioni Nuove) to the interrogation rooms in the Doge's Palace.
Cannaregio The northernmost of the six historic sestieri (districts) of Venice, Cannaregio is a “regal” area (Canal Regio is Italian for Royal Canal).
San Polo Right in the centre of Venice, it the smallest and one of the oldest district. It is built around the Rialto Bridge and is famous for its markets, churches and old buildings.
Traditional Venetian food and drink The traditional Italian “aperitivi” with the famous Venetian “cicchetti e ombra” are a favourite with both locals and tourists alike.

Trip Guidelines:

1. Travel insurance is not included.
2. We will arrange the boarding cards – don't forget your passport.
3. Make sure you pack comfy walking shoes.
4. You can text us at any point on the mobile numbers provided, but please don't forget to sign the texts so we know who you are.
5. We are travelling as a group. If, at any point, you want some time alone, please tell us before wandering off.
6. We might be visiting churches therefore, please remember that shoulders and knees should be covered.
7. This educational language-learning experience includes activities designed at different levels to improve your confidence. You can opt out, but this is the best way to learn and have fun.
8. Food and drink are not included. We split the dinner bill equally, but everyone pays individually for any additional drinks.
9. If you are travelling with us from UK: remember that you are only allowed hand luggage – more information about this will be given in due time.
